SINCE 1998 NEW YORK-USA

the journey

From our humble beginning as a small shop of only three artisans, Artsaics has evolved into a brand that embodies quality, creativity and harmony. Assertively, Artsaics has joined the glamorous world of custom tile and stone design contributing to it with our fresh and bold concepts. Since then, the company's mission has been satisfaction and innovative design. Exemplified in prestigious locations such as The Barnes Museum in Philadelphia PA, The Mark in New York City, Sebonack Golf Club in Southampton NY, The Waldorf Astoria in New York City, Chandler Hotel in New York City and The White House in Washington DC; among other.

Today, with our state-of-the-art facility and a gallery style showroom, Artsaics stays at the vanguard in the ever growing world of interior design. Along a staff of professional artisans, we offer flexibility and reliability, while assuring unmatched quality and service. Presently, Artsaics continues to transcend the world of interior design with our fresh and organic lines of home décor. With flawless taste and grace, Artsaics embraces professionalism and originality. We proudly lead the industry with our innovative techniques and designs, broadening the possibilities to artistically embellish your space.

Give us the opportunity to walk you through the exhilarating journey of artistic tile and stone décor. Allow us to indulge you into this fascinating world.

the purpose

Whether your project is a home or a commercial space, we are committed to create a legacy of beauty, designing and creating truly unique architectural works of art. our passion lies in working with our hands, heads and hearts making each and every space a unique reflection of self expression.
